You don't often get email from lsinger@motleyrice.com. Learn why this is important

Special Master Cohen (and all):

We write to ask your leave to correct an error that inadvertently left Los Angeles County off the list of jurisdictions seeking leave to amend its complaint to add Tris Pharma. I have cc'd counsel for Tris and have conferred with Ms. Steele and know that she is vetting the issue on her end. In the interest of time, I let her know that I would send this email at 4:00 today.

Los Angeles County timely provided its authorization, which was conveyed by Motley Rice to the PEC on July 9th. However, in an email to the PEC seeking to remove one of our clients (Ventura County) from the list of plaintiffs pursuing amendments, we mistakenly also referenced Los Angeles County. On September 10th, we noticed the error and informed the PEC to request a correction in the upcoming filing.

Please let us know if you have any questions. We regret the error and do not believe that the failure to include this single county prejudices the defendant. Conversely, Los Angeles County, which complied with the PEC's guidelines and deadlines, would be unfairly prejudiced.

With apologies and thanks for your consideration,
Linda Singer
